

Soldiers Again

From: PraiseLive.Com (Dallas Holm and others)

Intro: Eb

Backyard soldiers, little boys, We fought the enemy with little toys

Sticks for swords, hands for guns, Every battle always won.

But as we grew and went our way, We forgot about our soldier days

No more swords, no more guns, No more battles to be won.

But we were wrong, We did not see we still had an enemy

So now we stand Friend with friend, We are soldiers once again.

We are soldiers again, In the army of the Lord

We are soldiers again, And His Word is our sword

We will not be denied with Him by our side,

We know the victory we'll win

We will fight till the end, Soldiers again.

And we still can't even see the one we are fighting

But we stand with One who can, the Lord God Almighty.

We are soldiers again, In the army of the Lord

We are soldiers again, And His Word is our sword

| We will not be denied with Him by our side, We know the victory we'll win

We will fight till the end, Soldiers again. | repeat