God Will Make A Way

From: PraiseLive.Com (Don Moen - 1990) Tempo: 4/4, bpm: 97, Intro: G D C B7 C G

| Chorus:             |             |                  |                  |            |             |      |
|---------------------|-------------|------------------|------------------|------------|-------------|------|
| G                   | D           |                  | C                |            | G           |      |
| God will ma         | ake a way   | , when th        | nere seem        | s to be no | way.        |      |
| C                   |             | G                | C                |            | G           | D    |
| He works in         | ways we     | cannot s         | see, He wi       | ill make a | a way fo    | r me |
| G                   | D           |                  | C                | G          |             |      |
| He will be rC   | ny guide,   | hold me G        | closely to       | his side   | •           |      |
| With love a         | nd strengt  | th for eac       | h new da         | y          |             |      |
| Am7                 | Cmaj        | 7 C              |                  | G          |             |      |
| He will mak         | ke a way,   | God w            | ill make a       | way.       |             |      |
| Verse:              |             |                  |                  |            |             |      |
| Eb                  |             | F                |                  |            |             |      |
| By a roadwaF7 B | -           | wildernes        | SS,              |            |             |      |
| He'll lead m        | ie.         |                  |                  |            |             |      |
| Eb                  | F           |                  | G                |            |             |      |
| And RiversC     | in the des  | sert will lD | see              |            |             |      |
| Heaven and          | earth wil   | l fade,          |                  |            |             |      |
| Bm                  | 1           | Em               |                  |            |             |      |
| But His Wo          | rd will sti | ill remair       | 1                |            |             |      |
| C                   | D           |                  | E                |            |             |      |
| And He will         | l do some   | thing nev        | w today (l       | Key chan   | ge to A)    | )    |
| A                   | Е           |                  | D                |            | A           |      |
| God will maD    | ake a way   |                  | nere seemA D | s to be no | o way.A | E    |
| He works in         | ways we     | cannot s         | see, He wi       | ill make a | a way fo    | r me |
| A                   | E           |                  | D                | A          |             |      |
| He will be r        | ny guide,   | hold me          | closely to       | his side   | •           |      |
| D                   |             | A                |                  |            |             |      |
| With love a         | nd strengt  | th for eac       | h new da         | y          |             |      |
| Bm7                 |             | D                | =                | 4          |             |      |
| He will mak         | te a way,   | God wil          | l make a v       | way.       |             |      |